"The CHRISTMAS season is one of bells. Mildred kept telling herself that tonight was all counting on the working bell of the town. As soon as she saw the sound herself saying it through clenched teeth. At one minute to twelve she made a grab for her hat and started for the door. She had to get outside before the dinner bell rang!

"This bell! What's the rush?"

It was her friend Annie. Mildred's momentary carried the two of them through the big doors and into the street. Even there she could hear the muted sound of the noon bell within the store. "Those bells are driving me crazy!" she said as she put her hat on backwards.

"I think bells are jolly. What would a wedding be without them?"

About two o'clock a young woman and her daughter approached the counter.

"That's different," said Mildred straightening her hat.

"I'll trade you jobs," said Mildred.

"Mr. Johnson wouldn't let us do that. Even simple jobs like ours take a few days to learn; and this is Christmas Eve."

"Thank goodness for that, Annie! I couldn't listen to bells for another whole day without going batty."

Annie laughed. "It's all in the mind. Bells are wonderful, especially at Christmas."

"Sure! But if one more kid runs around my counter pulling some scendish contraption with bells on it—I'll quit!"

"And miss your Christmas bonus? You're kidding!"

Ear Plugs

But Mildred was serious. After lunch she bought some cotton to plug her ears. The bells had given her a slight headache. About two o'clock a woman and her young daughter approached the counter.

"Do you sell toy xylophones, miss?" asked the woman.

Mildred groaned. She'd purposely hidden the noisy little instruments under the counter. She brought out a xylophone and held it up for the woman to admire. "This looks nice, doesn't it?" she asked.

"Well, isn't there a hammer to go with it?"

Mildred reluctantly produced a hammer.

The woman smiled at her daughter. "Now I'll play Silent Night, dear."

The girl looked like she was ready to burst into laughter. Was this a joke? Mildred reached for the instrument. "You want to buy it?" she asked hopefully.

"My daughter wants to try it."

"The girl didn't seem to notice Mildred's snarl. She touched the xylophone gingerly with the hammer. "It's beautiful!" she said, her eyes shining.

"Beautiful?" asked Mildred. "Are you kidding?"

"Oh mother, I'm the happiest girl in the world! What a marvelous Christmas present!"

Mildred's jaw fell. "This?" she said picking up the toy to check the price.

Good Season

The woman laughed. "You don't understand, miss. My daughter has really never heard ANYTHING so happy. Her father and I have been trying to buy her a special kind of hearing-aid. That's the present she's talking about."

Mildred turned to the delighted girl. "Have you ever heard a music-box, honey?"

The child shook her head. Ordinary speech still puzzled her. Mildred brought out a music-box and wound it up.

The little girl clapped her hands. Mildred proceeded to demonstrate the other toy. She was on her knees prattling over a waddy-dick with bells on it when she saw Annie and Mr. Johnson watching her. "Aren't bells wonderful?" she asked.

Mr. Johnson shook his head and Annie began wiping her eyes.

"Oh, now look! It's not what you think. This little girl has a new hearing-aid and she's hearing Christmas sounds for the first time."

"They said to Wilson, 'Happy Christmas, little girl!'"

IF YOU'RE STARTING AS A BABY SITTER, HEED THESE TIPS

If you have never been a baby sitter before, your chance may come along during the holiday season this year.

A good sitter is one who has a sense of responsibility.

There are certain things a good baby sitter does not do, such as raid the icebox without permission or make long distance telephone calls.

If you are serving as a baby sitter for the first time this holiday season, the National Board of Fire Underwriters offers these suggestions:

1. Ask your employer to leave with you, in writing, the phone number of the place where he will be. Tell him this is merely a precautionary step, and you will not call him except in an emergency.

2. Also, have him give you the phone number of a friend of the family who lives nearby, or the phone number of a next door neighbor.
3. Ask your employer to leave the telephone number of the fire department and the family doctor beside the phone.
4. When you enter the home where you are to baby sit, make a mental note of where the exits are, then, in case of fire, you can get the children out of the house quickly.
5. Ask your employer, where he keeps his flashlight. You might need it suddenly if the lighting should fail.
6. Take a look around and make sure that any matches in the house are out of reach of children.
7. If fire should break out, follow this procedure. Get the child or children out of the house, then call the fire department, then notify the parents.

Pretty Miss Gwendolyn Cooper, Mississippi Queen of the Forest for 1962, is shown checking the size of 18 year old planted loblolly pine. This tree, the same age as Miss Cooper is a good example of what can be expected from tree planting. Gwen said, "Mississippi landowners can still place their orders for seedlings. If you haven't ordered yours, see yours Area Forester or county agriculture workers and fill out an application." Tree planted now reach merchantable size during the period that demand for wood and wood products is expected to make a tremendous upsurge.

FIRST MUSIC BOX

The first music box in the United States was manufactured in 1892 by the Regina Box Company, a branch of a German firm. Music boxes were developed sometime after 1750 by the watchmakers of Switzerland.

EARLY LIGHTS

Barrel-shaped glass lights were among Christmas tree ornaments used before the turn of the century. Illumination shone brightly through the various-colored glass—amethyst, moss and emerald green, blue and gold balls and strings of tinsel.

POINSETTIA CARE

Proper care will insure a long life for the poinsettia plant. Here are some suggestions:

Place the plant in a sunny window well away from drafts and excessive heat. A temperature of 70 degrees is recommended.

Examine the soil twice daily and keep it uniformly moist. When it starts to dry out, apply enough water to wet the soil to the bottom.

The South's pulp and paper industry in 1960 provided employment for more than 86,000 persons who received a payroll totaling $463 million.

ORDERS FOR PINE SEEDLINGS ARE STILL BEING ACCEPTED

Area Forester Glenn Purvis announced that the Mississippi Forestry Commission has begun lifting and shipping seedlings from their nurseries at Winona, Mount Olive and Waynesboro.

Purvis also said that orders are still being accepted for longleaf, loblolly, slash and shortleaf pines, and hardwood species green ash, black locust, sycamore and sweet gum.

Prices for the seedlings are $4.50 per thousand, plus $.35 delivery charge per thousand to deliver the trees to a central point in the County. If seedlings are to be picked up at the nursery, the delivery charges may be omitted.

Glenn Purvis said, "Any landowner who has not ordered his seedlings may fill out the tree seedling application above and send it to me, or county agriculture workers at P. O. Box 112, Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, along with their remittance."

Area Forester Purvis said that it was very important to return the application directly to him, in order to make it possible to reserve the correct number of trees. Area Forester Purvis advise landowners who want only a few thousand seedlings that they may purchase them at Rocky Hill Tower beginning December 20, 1961.

Pasture Work Time

There is a lot to be done pasture-wise right now for management of winter grazing is important. Even if there is plenty of growth for grazing, livestock should be moved off land if it is too wet. More damage will be done from bogging than from grazing. Building fire lanes around pastures is also a good idea. Now is also a good time to take soil sample for fertilizer analysis.

Families Urged to Use Care With Fire Throughout Year

Families throughout the nation were urged by the National Board of Fire Underwriters today to keep the Christmas season merry by using care with fire.

Moreover, the Board asked that care with fire not stop at the end of the holiday season, but be carried on throughout the year. "A total of 11,350 persons lost their lives in fires during the year 1960, and property damage exceeded $1 billion for the fourth year in a row," said Lewis A. Vincent, general manager of the National Board.

"This appalling toll in lives and property can be reduced with a little more care on everyone's part," Mr. Vincent added.

Ordinary care around the Christmas tree can save lives and prevent property loss this holiday season.

"And continued care after the holidays are over can help keep fires at a minimum."

Help The Fire Chief Have Merry Holiday

Help the fire chief and his men have a Merry Christmas this year by using care with fire around the house, says the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

State's Job And Income Picture

Non-farm payroll set a new employment record for the month of October, 1960. Jobs above previous high of 27,000, 200 new jobs were added in the month, bringing the total to 27,200. The gain was 2,000 jobs from the previous month. The gain was 2,000 jobs from the previous month. The gain was 2,000 jobs from the previous month.

OVER 400 MILES RURAL ROADS TO BE IMPROVED UNDER STATE AID PROGRAM

Contracts providing for the improvement of more than 400 miles of rural roads were awarded by County Boards of Supervisors under the Mississippi State Aid Road Program during 1961, according to Frank T. Moore, State Aid Engineer.

The tenth anniversary of the first State Aid contract was marked during the year. During the decade, 2,900 miles of hard-surfaced roads have been built, plus 1,500 bridges which total more than 25 miles in length.

According to Moore, State Aid contracts awarded during 1961 totaled approximately $10,000,000. During the year, actual construction, or planning work, was carried out in each of the State's 82 Counties.

The State Aid Division, created by the Mississippi Legislature to work with County Boards of Supervisors in improvement of main County roads, approved the first State Aid construction contract in June of 1951. Since that time, contracts totaling $92,000,000 have been administered by the Division. In addition to the 3,200 miles of pavement, another 1,000 miles of grading have been accomplished.

The State Aid System, Moore explained, is composed of 11,656 miles of principal County roads.

"These State Aid roads in the various Counties are not a part of the State Highway System, but are County primary roads which are more important to the overall traffic pattern than less-traveled parts of the County System."

About $10.2 million is available each year under the State Aid Program for the construction of these roads, Moore explained. These funds include half of Mississippi's Federal Aid Secondary Fund allocation, which amounts to about $2.7 million, and $7.5 million which is set aside from a percentage of the State Sales Tax.

Although the State Aid Division administers the program at the State level, State Aid contracts are awarded by the County Boards of Supervisors. Moore said the Counties provide engineering and rights of way, with Engineers of the State Aid Division coordinating the program by approving plans, specifications, contracts and construction.

Make Sure Your Oven Is Clean Before You Put On The Turkey

If you are planning a big Christmas dinner with turkey and all the trimmings, be sure to start out with a clean stove.

The National Board of Fire Underwriter reminds that the best way to avoid a grease fire is to keep the stove clear of grease. The Board recommends scouring of the oven as a timely precaution.

In addition, while cooking, grease containers should be kept away from the stove.

When frying food in a pan on top of the stove, remember that a large flat pan cover and a long handled fork can be used to smother a fire. If the grease in the pan catches fire you can usually extinguish it quickly by lifting the cover with the fork and placing it over the pan.

Fire in a frying pan can be extinguished by sprinkling ordinary baking soda or salt on it. However, if you do this, you may have to get something else to eat for supper.

One added note of caution: Before you start cooking, check the nearby window curtains and hanging towels to be sure they cannot blow over the burners.

Renew Your Drivers License Early — Many Expire December 31

New Year's Eve is the expiration date for over 114,000 drivers licenses. Even with an automated procedure a lot of time is required to process that many licenses.

Director of Drivers Licensing A. M. Smith recommends that drivers whose licenses expire on December 31 renew them early so that there will not be such a long delay in receiving their new licenses. Licenses may be renewed at any Sheriff's Office, City Clerk's Office or at the Highway Patrol Headquarters in Jackson.

New Year's Day mark the beginning of the Motor Vehicle Inspection Period for 1962. The period runs through the months of January, February and March. The rules and regulations that were in effect last year will remain in effect. The fee for inspection is still $1.25. There are approved Official Inspection Stations located throughout the state for the convenience of the motoring public.

The events mentioned above are vitally important to every driver in the state. Stop a moment right now and check your license to note its expiration date. If it expires December 31, then renew early if at all possible.

Plastics Firm To Locate In Biloxi

Location of a new industry in Biloxi with an annual payroll of an estimated $500,000 was announced this month by company and city officials. Arlen Robinson, president of Hypo Corporation, said that his company will begin operations in about 90 days. The plant will manufacture plastic medical and pharmaceutical items, including a hypodermic syringe. About 80 person will be employed initially but expansion plans call for employment of 250.

The pulp and paper mills in the 11-state Southern area represent an investment of $3.7 billion. Florida has the largest investment for any one state, with mills valued at $632 million.

What About Frankincense And Myrrh?

Gold has always been one of man's most treasured possessions; but what about frankincense and myrrh, the other substances which the Wise Men chose to offer as gifts to the infant Jesus? Why were they so highly valued?

Frankincense and myrrh are resins taken from trees and shrubs found on the dry, rocky, treeless hills of Somaliland and southwestern Arabia. Peoples of antiquity used the two substances for a variety of purposes—for embalming and in cosmetics, perfumes, medicines, and incense.

Frankincense
Somaliland is chief producer of frankincense, although some comes from Arabia. Most frankincense comes from a small shrub-like tree with a stout trunk and pale brown and yellow bark. Its flowers are grouped in slender clusters and the fragrance of the blossoms is discernible for a considerable distance.

The resin flows from natural fissures in the bark of the tree, or from man-made incisions. It emerges as a whitish, viscous liquid that turns yellow and clings to the wound in the tree like tears. Every few days the resin is collected and the wound in the tree is freshened.

Ancient Arab traders introduced frankincense to many peoples. Today, the yellow tears and brown lumps of resin are sent to the seaport of Aden to be shipped to Europe, America, or Bombay.

Myrrh From Somaliland
Myrrh is obtained from trees of several species and most of it comes from Somaliland. Some of the trees are from ten to thirty feet tall, other myrrh-producing plants are mere bushes.

Myrrh flows freely from a break in the bark of the tree or plant and is collected in brownish-yellow or red brown masses that may be as large as a hen's egg. The ancients used myrrh in embalming; the Egyptians used it in the mummification process and Roman physicians prescribed myrrh in treatment of dropsy, earache, eye diseases, bladder stones, abscesses and broken heads.

Frankincense was chiefly used for incense, yet was an early ingredient in prescriptions for chest pain, hemorrhoids, hemorrhages from the mouth and throat, broken heads, paralyzed limbs, bruises and ulcers.

MAGNOLIA BOYS' TOWN LAUNCHES 'BUCK A MONTH FOR A BOY' CAMPAIGN

In order to support the growing number of boys now enrolled at Magnolia Boys' Town and also to help care for a list of others waiting, the Director and Staff of Magnolia Boys' Town have announced a new plan of financing the non-tax supported home. It's called the "Buck for a Boy" campaign. This is a plan where by friends are asked to sign twelve checks for $1.00 each payable on the first of each month. Then the budget can be determined and through this system the home will be guaranteed regular support. We believe most anyone would give a "Buck" if it means saving a boy.

The budget for Magnolia Boys' Town is now $5,000 per month. This would require 5,000 members to give $1.00 per month, 1,000 to give $5.00 per month, 500 to give $10 per month or 50 friends to give $100 per month. Director Henry Bucklew stated the biggest majority of our friends are among the average income group and the "Buck a Month for a Boy" seems to be the ideal amount to suggest. Magnolia Boys' Town has printed checks already available made payable to Magnolia Boys' Town and will mail 12 such checks to any friends, firm or organization who would like to help sponsor a boys care at Magnolia Boys' Town.

The "Buck a Month for a Boy" members will not be asked to give in the special drives that must be conducted in order to raise the urgently needed operating funds. At the end of the year they may or may not elect to continue with this program. The "Buck a Month for a Boy" members will receive regular reports from the Home in the Magnolia Boys' Town Newspaper telling of the progress and future of the Home. These members also become honorary members of Magnolia Boys' Town. The staff is most optimistic that among the many friends of Magnolia Boys' Town who are now supporting our Home, at least 5,000 will join the "Buck for a Boy" Club. Everyone desiring to join this care'n-share club write Magnolia Boys' Town, Post Office Box 602, Laurel, Mississippi today.

NATION ASKED TO CUT HEAVY YULE TIME FIRE TOLL

Americans are being asked by the National Board of Fire Underwriters to keep fire safety in mind this Christmas and prevent a recurrence of the heavy toll in fire deaths recorded a year ago.

In the three days beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Christmas Eve, there were 77 deaths in the United States compared with 43 deaths the preceding Christmas.

A total of 66 persons died in fires during a three-day period last New Year's compared with 63 persons in a like period a year earlier.

"The Christmas season can be a joyous one for all of us if we use ordinary care," said Lewis A.

Vincent, general manager of the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

"It is a well-known fact that three-fourths of all fires are caused by carelessness and forgetfulness."

Deaths from fire which occurred during the Christmas and New Year's holiday periods of the last 10 years, according to the National Safety Council, are as follows:

Year	Number of Days	Fire Deaths	Fatalities N.Y.
1960	3	77	68
1959	3	43	63
1958	4	93	61
1957	1	27	20

Teen-Agers Add Lively Lift To New March of Dimes Drive

Have sections in this Civil War Centennial Year? It can—and does—happen here, with the flower of American youth on the block.

But in this century, there's a difference. Now it's all in a good cause. Members of the New March of Dimes Teen Age Program (TAP) auction their services to the highest bidder among local merchants. The money goes to support The National Foundation—March of Dimes attack on birth defects, arthritis and polio.

It's all part of TAP members' lively approach to volunteer community service. They also sponsor walkathons (shades of the Thirties!) in which teams from rival schools move toward the finish line as dimes are contributed. They dance for dimes at casual sock hops and formal balls, man concessions at school sports events, and hold community car washes.

Through such ingenious fun-for-funds projects, TAPs raised nearly three-quarters of a million dollars during the 1961 March of Dimes.

For the 1962 New March of Dimes in January, tens of thousands of the youthful volunteers are literally "on TAP." In more than 75 per cent of The National Foundation's 3,100 local county chapters, active TAP committees are determined to hit new highs in fun as well as funds.

Adult advisors who work with TAPs point out that underlying the outward frivolity of the teenagers' projects is a deep awareness of the need for increased research and progress in the fight against crippling birth defects, arthritis and polio. During the year, many youngsters assist in local patient services by reading to disabled children, writing letters for severely crippled arthritics or working as hospital aides.

A prime year-round responsibility of TAP members is distribution of information about National Foundation Health Scholarships to students in high schools and colleges. Each year, more than 500 four-year scholarships with a full value of $2,000 apiece are offered for study in medicine, nursing, physical therapy, occupational therapy and medical social work. TAP members know the desperate need to reduce the shortage of manpower in the health professions by encouraging students to undertake careers in these fields.

TOP TEEN—Katherine Anne (Katie) Keith, 18, of Columbia, Mo., has her hands full as newly-appointed chairman of the 1962 New March of Dimes Teen Age Program (TAP).

Leader of the Teen Age Program for the 1962 New March of Dimes is national chairman Katherine Anne Keith, 18, of Columbia, Mo. Blonde, brainy and born to be busy, Katie will handle her major responsibilities as top TAP while she pursues an ambitious freshman schedule at the University of Missouri.

On the basis of past performance, juggling scholarship and volunteer service won't intimidate Katie. She was 1961 Missouri state TAP chairman during her strenuous senior year in high school. Under her leadership, Missouri TAPs showed record gains in membership, services to chapters and funds raised for the March of Dimes.

At the same time, Katie maintained grades that ranked her third in her graduating class of almost 300 students. She was a National Merit Scholarship finalist and received the Kiwanis Good Citizenship award. She was business manager—and occasional sports-writer—for the school paper, treasurer of the National Honor Society, queen of the major social function of the school year, had a lead role in the school play, "Teahouse of the August Moon," and actively participated in math, history, English and French clubs.

She also teaches a Sunday School class at Missouri Methodist Church in Columbia. After a summer in Europe, including study at the Sorbonne in Paris, the energetic Katie began to plan for a banner year of TAP activity for the March of Dimes.

"Teenagers who are looking for a sense of satisfaction along with fun and friendship are missing a bet if they don't check TAP activities in their local March of Dimes chapters," she said. "A TAP committee isn't just another youth organization—it's not merely a club to serve youth. Instead, it gives us an opportunity to serve our communities."

HOW GOOD IS YOUR BULL?

The herd bull on your farm can go a long way in determining whether you sell $45 calves or $100 calves.

The salvage value of old bulls and those of poor quality would contribute much toward paying for the right kind.

Do not be satisfied with an ordinary bull. If you are going to improve your cattle, your bull must be better than the calf crop and better cows.

Remember! Your herd bull is the most important single animal in your herd.

The value per head of our cattle was $47 a head less than the national average on January 1 of this year. At the same time, the calf crop was 14 percent less than the national average.

If we would just advance to the national average, we would nearly double our cattle income!

And the right kind and numbers of bulls, properly managed would go a long way toward this goal. Think what it would add to the economy of the state!

Here is how to do it. First get the right kind of bulls and enough of them. Then cull non-productive cows. Save your top heifers for replacements. Grow them out for breeding and make sure you have plenty of pasture. Winter them well and turn the bulls with the cows at the right time. Control diseases and do a good management job.

One of the best tools available in improving a cattle operation is performance testing. And this on-farm testing is available to you through the Agricultural Extension Service. See your local county agent for details.

CARE OF SEEDLINGS

How well you take care of your pine seedlings from the time you get them until you finish planting has a lot to do with how well they live.

Pick up your seedlings the day they are delivered. If necessary to hold them a few day before planting, store them in the shade. Store with one end elevated slightly. Keep roots moist. Do not stack bundles on top of one another.

Then plant them in moist soil.

To maintain their continuing programs to improve company-owned forests, the 73 primary pulp and paper mills in the South spent a total of $34 million during 1960.

SOIL TESTING

Using too much fertilizer costs you money and so does using too little. With good soil samples sent to the state soils testing laboratory, you don't have to guess at how much to use.

Right now is a good time to take soil samples. Land is in good condition generally. The soils testing laboratory is not swamped with samples. Your sample can be processed promptly and recommendations returned without delay.

Having your soil tested also lets you know whether or not lime is needed. If it is apply this fall.

As on acid soil, lime will work more efficiently if applied in the fall or early winter.

When taking soil sample, do a good job because no recommendations can be better than the samples sent in. See your local county agent for soil sampling supplies—boxes and information sheets.

CATTLE LICE

Planning to feed your cattle enough this winter to take good care of them and the lice? Such might get rather expensive before the feeding season is over.

Best idea would be to get rid of the lice. It is not too hard to do. Your county agent has detailed information on how to control cattle lice including poisons to use and how to use them.

CONTROL ROACHES

Do you sometimes wonder if you can control roaches and waterbug? The answer is definitely yes!

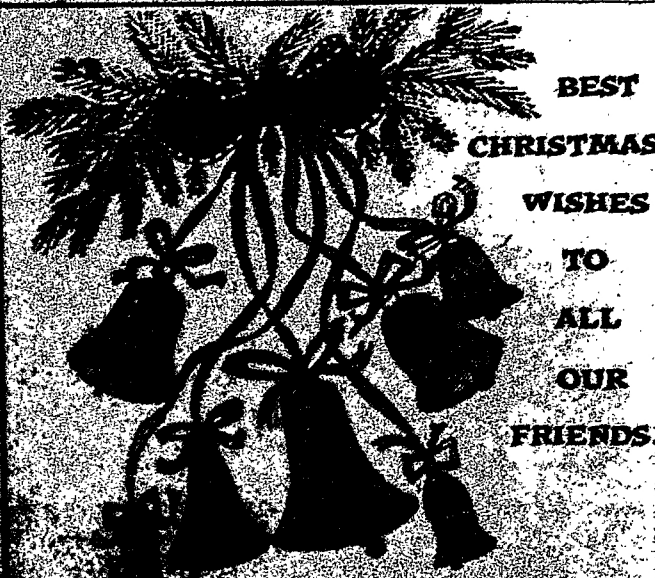

But some of the roaches seem to have a built in resistance to some of the insecticides we have been using. Then, too, no matter what poison you use, you have to put it out right.

For resistant roaches use diazinon, malathion or Ronnel. Chlor-dane and dieldrin are also recommended, if the roaches are not resistant. Here is how to apply the insecticides: Remove all foods, dishes, pots pans and other stuff from the kitchen cabinets. Clean shelves in cabinets, bedroom closets, and bathrooms. Wash all these places with soap and water.

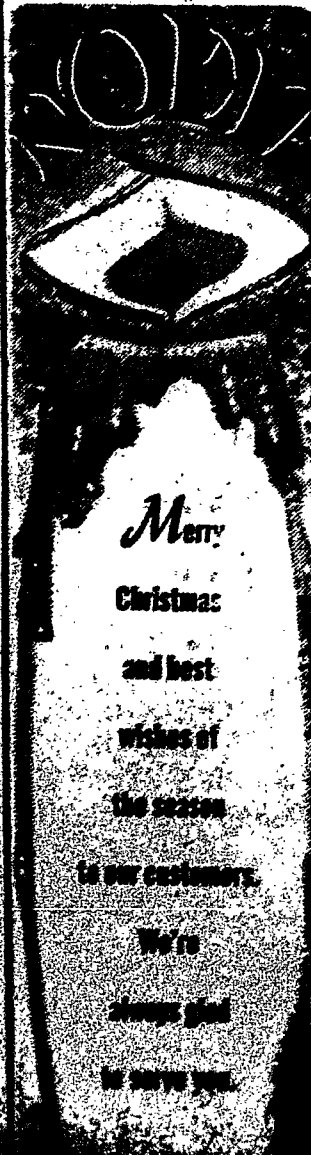

Brush or spray poison inside cabinets. Be sure to get poison into cracks, corners, crevices; the bottom sides of drawers and top and bottom of base boards.

Do not wipe poison off. It will continue to kill for several weeks. Poison again in around four weeks.

BEST CHRISTMAS WISHES TO ALL OUR FRIENDS.

IMMIGRATION BOOM STIMULATING GROWTH IN MISSISSIPPI

STATE COLLEGE, Miss.—Immigration into Mississippi over 200,000 persons during the past decade, according to a study by the state's population sociologists. This was large enough to "populate" three times about the size of Jackson, and to increase the state's population by a third.

Ellen S. Bryant and Dr. J. G. L. Wilber have recently released results of their population study at Mississippi State University. Their figures take into account the natural increase of births over deaths in the state. The net migration figure represents people who left Mississippi and their loss was not offset by other people moving in.

Their report states, in part: "When the home community cannot provide new incomes, migration becomes a necessity and can be considered a desirable method of balancing available workers to available jobs in a progressive economy."

"On the other hand the loss of investment and manpower ensuing from outmigration is a heavy financial incumbrance to residents of the state."

"If the cost of rearing and educating a child in Mississippi to age 18 is assumed to be $12,000 per white child and $5,000 per nonwhite child, the lost investment in migrating youth to Mississippi people can be estimated at somewhat over $1 billion during the decade."

"If we assume conservatively that each white migrant would have earned $2400 a year and each nonwhite $1200 a year had they remained in Mississippi, migration is costing the state an additional $800 million a year in earned wealth. When this figure is multiplied by the number of remaining working years in each migrant's lifetime, the figure becomes astronomical. If investment and production losses are added together, Mississippi's migration loss during the 1950's cost the state an average of $700 million a year."

RETAIL MERCHANTS WITH SIMPLE CARE CAN CUT HAZARDS

Retail merchants can keep their stores fireproof and avoid the possibility of costly damage to their stocks and buildings by following a few simple safety tips this holiday season.

The National Board of Fire Underwriters points out that the fire potential of a store may be sharply reduced by disposing of shipping cartons as soon as goods are unpacked.

To minimize fire hazards, back rooms and cellars should be cleared of such materials daily.

Here are a few other important rules:

1. Smoking should be permitted only in specially designated areas (this applies both to the public and employees).

2. To permit rapid evacuation in case of fire, aisles and exits should be kept clear.

3. A plan should be drawn on what to do in case of fire. Clerks should be instructed how to handle fire extinguishers and other equipment that may be used for the control of small fires. However, every employee should be instructed to call the fire department the moment a fire starts, no matter how small it may be.

Make Sure Toys Are Safe

If you are buying toys for the youngsters this year, make sure they are safe toys incapable of causing fire, shock or explosion, the National Board of Fire Underwriters advises.

Miniature space vehicles, rockets, airplanes, automobiles, and other mechanical toys that use kerosene, gasoline, carbide or hydrogen peroxide for fuels may be hazardous if placed in the hands of unattended small children.

The National Board urges that parents supervise all play with electrical toys, also those powered with fuses and chemicals.

On heat-producing and electrical toys the U.S. label of Underwriters Laboratories is especially important.

MSC Thinks Vehicles Should Be Inspected Twice Annually

A year-end upsurge in traffic fatalities has given support to the Mississippi Safety Council's position that motor vehicles should be inspected twice annually—instead of once-a-year as now provided.

And the fact that 60 per cent of the fatalities resulted from one-car accidents is another indication that motor vehicles should be checked more than just once a year.

Council President Otho Smith of Meridian, said both are factors which should be considered by the legislature when it meets in January.

"The death rate dropped immediately after inspections were made earlier this year and remained that way until around October," President Smith said. "Since then, there has been an alarming increase."

Earlier this year, Mississippi was registering a drop of more than 110 traffic deaths, which has since been to about 80.

"A lot of the cars inspected when the law went in effect were 'marginal' vehicles and barely passed the approving station," Mr. Smith said. "They are now showing up sub-marginal, yet there is no way to check them until the one year period is up."

Indicative of the sub-marginal condition of many cars, a safety council official noted 79 with only one headlight on a recent trip from Jackson to Hattiesburg—about 90 miles.

As of December 8, Mississippi had recorded 491 traffic deaths since the first of the year. That compared with 591 for the same months of 1960.

Of 1961 total, 442 occurred in rural areas.

Total traffic fatalities last year was 624.

Farm Cash Receipts For 1961

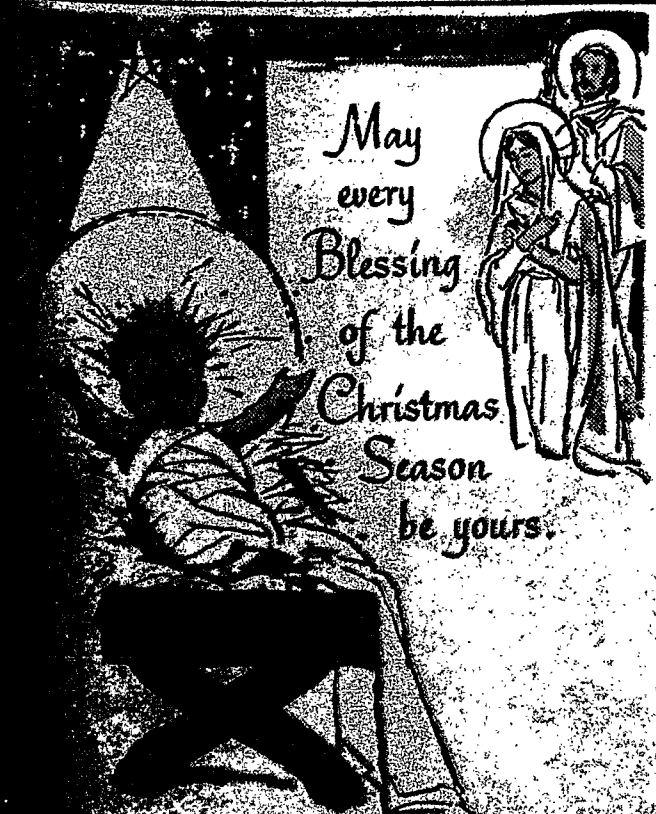

Increased agricultural income for Mississippi is reflected in that the total cash receipts from farm marketings in the first three quarters of 1961 exceeded $270,000,000. This income was again over the same period last year. Cotton income and other marketings during the last quarter of 1961 will substantially boost Mississippi's agricultural "take" for the current year, which has earmarks of being one of the best to date in spite of numerous problems.

45,000,000 Christmas Trees To Deck American Homes

Americans during December will buy and decorate around 45 million natural Christmas trees cut from the nation's tree farms and forests.

For these trees Americans will spend over $50 million.

To decorate them families will buy around 200 million new ornaments.

USE CARE IN DECORATING

The National Board of Fire Underwriters today asked that care be taken in erecting and decorating these trees.

A tree contains natural resins which ignite easily and burn readily, the National Board reminded.

If proper precautions are taken, however, fires may be avoided. Particular attention should be given to trees in churches and schools.

DON'T BLOCK EXITS

Trees, in addition, should not be set up close to stairways because in case of fire the stairway as an exit from upper floors would be blocked.

With regard to the care of Christmas trees in the home, the National Board has these following suggestions:

(1) When you choose your Christmas tree this year, select one which appears freshly cut. Feel the needles to make sure they are firmly attached.

(2) Keep the tree "out of doors" until just before Christmas. And keep it standing in a pail of water so that it will remain fresh.

(3) When you put the tree up, place it in the coolest part of the room. It should be as far as possible from radiators, heaters and as far away as possible from the fireplace. This will reduce the chances of fire, and keep the tree from drying.

(4) Use a tree stand which has a water container in which the trunk can rest. Most trees "drink" water fairly fast, so fill the water container daily.

(5) Christmas tree decorations should be flameproof. Use only decorations made of glass, metal or fire-resistant material.

(6) Electric trains should be set up away from the tree. A spark from the train could ignite dry pine needles.

(7) Use only electric lights to decorate the tree—never candles. Be sure to check lighting sets before placing them on the tree. Those with frayed wires should be discarded. When you buy a new set look for the UL tag or label of Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc.

(8) When you open presents on Christmas morning, put away gift wrapping you intend to keep. Gather up other wrappings and throw them away immediately after presents are opened.

The lights on Christmas trees should be turned off when everyone is away from home.

(10) Check the tree for dryness from time to time. If needles near lights have started to turn brown, change the position of the lights.

(11) When the needles start falling, take the tree down immediately and discard it outdoors.

(12) Even if the tree is still fresh, plan now to dismantle it the day after New Year's.

(13) Make sure your decorative lighting does not overload electrical circuits.

IN CASE OF FIRE

At home

Quickly get everybody out of the house.

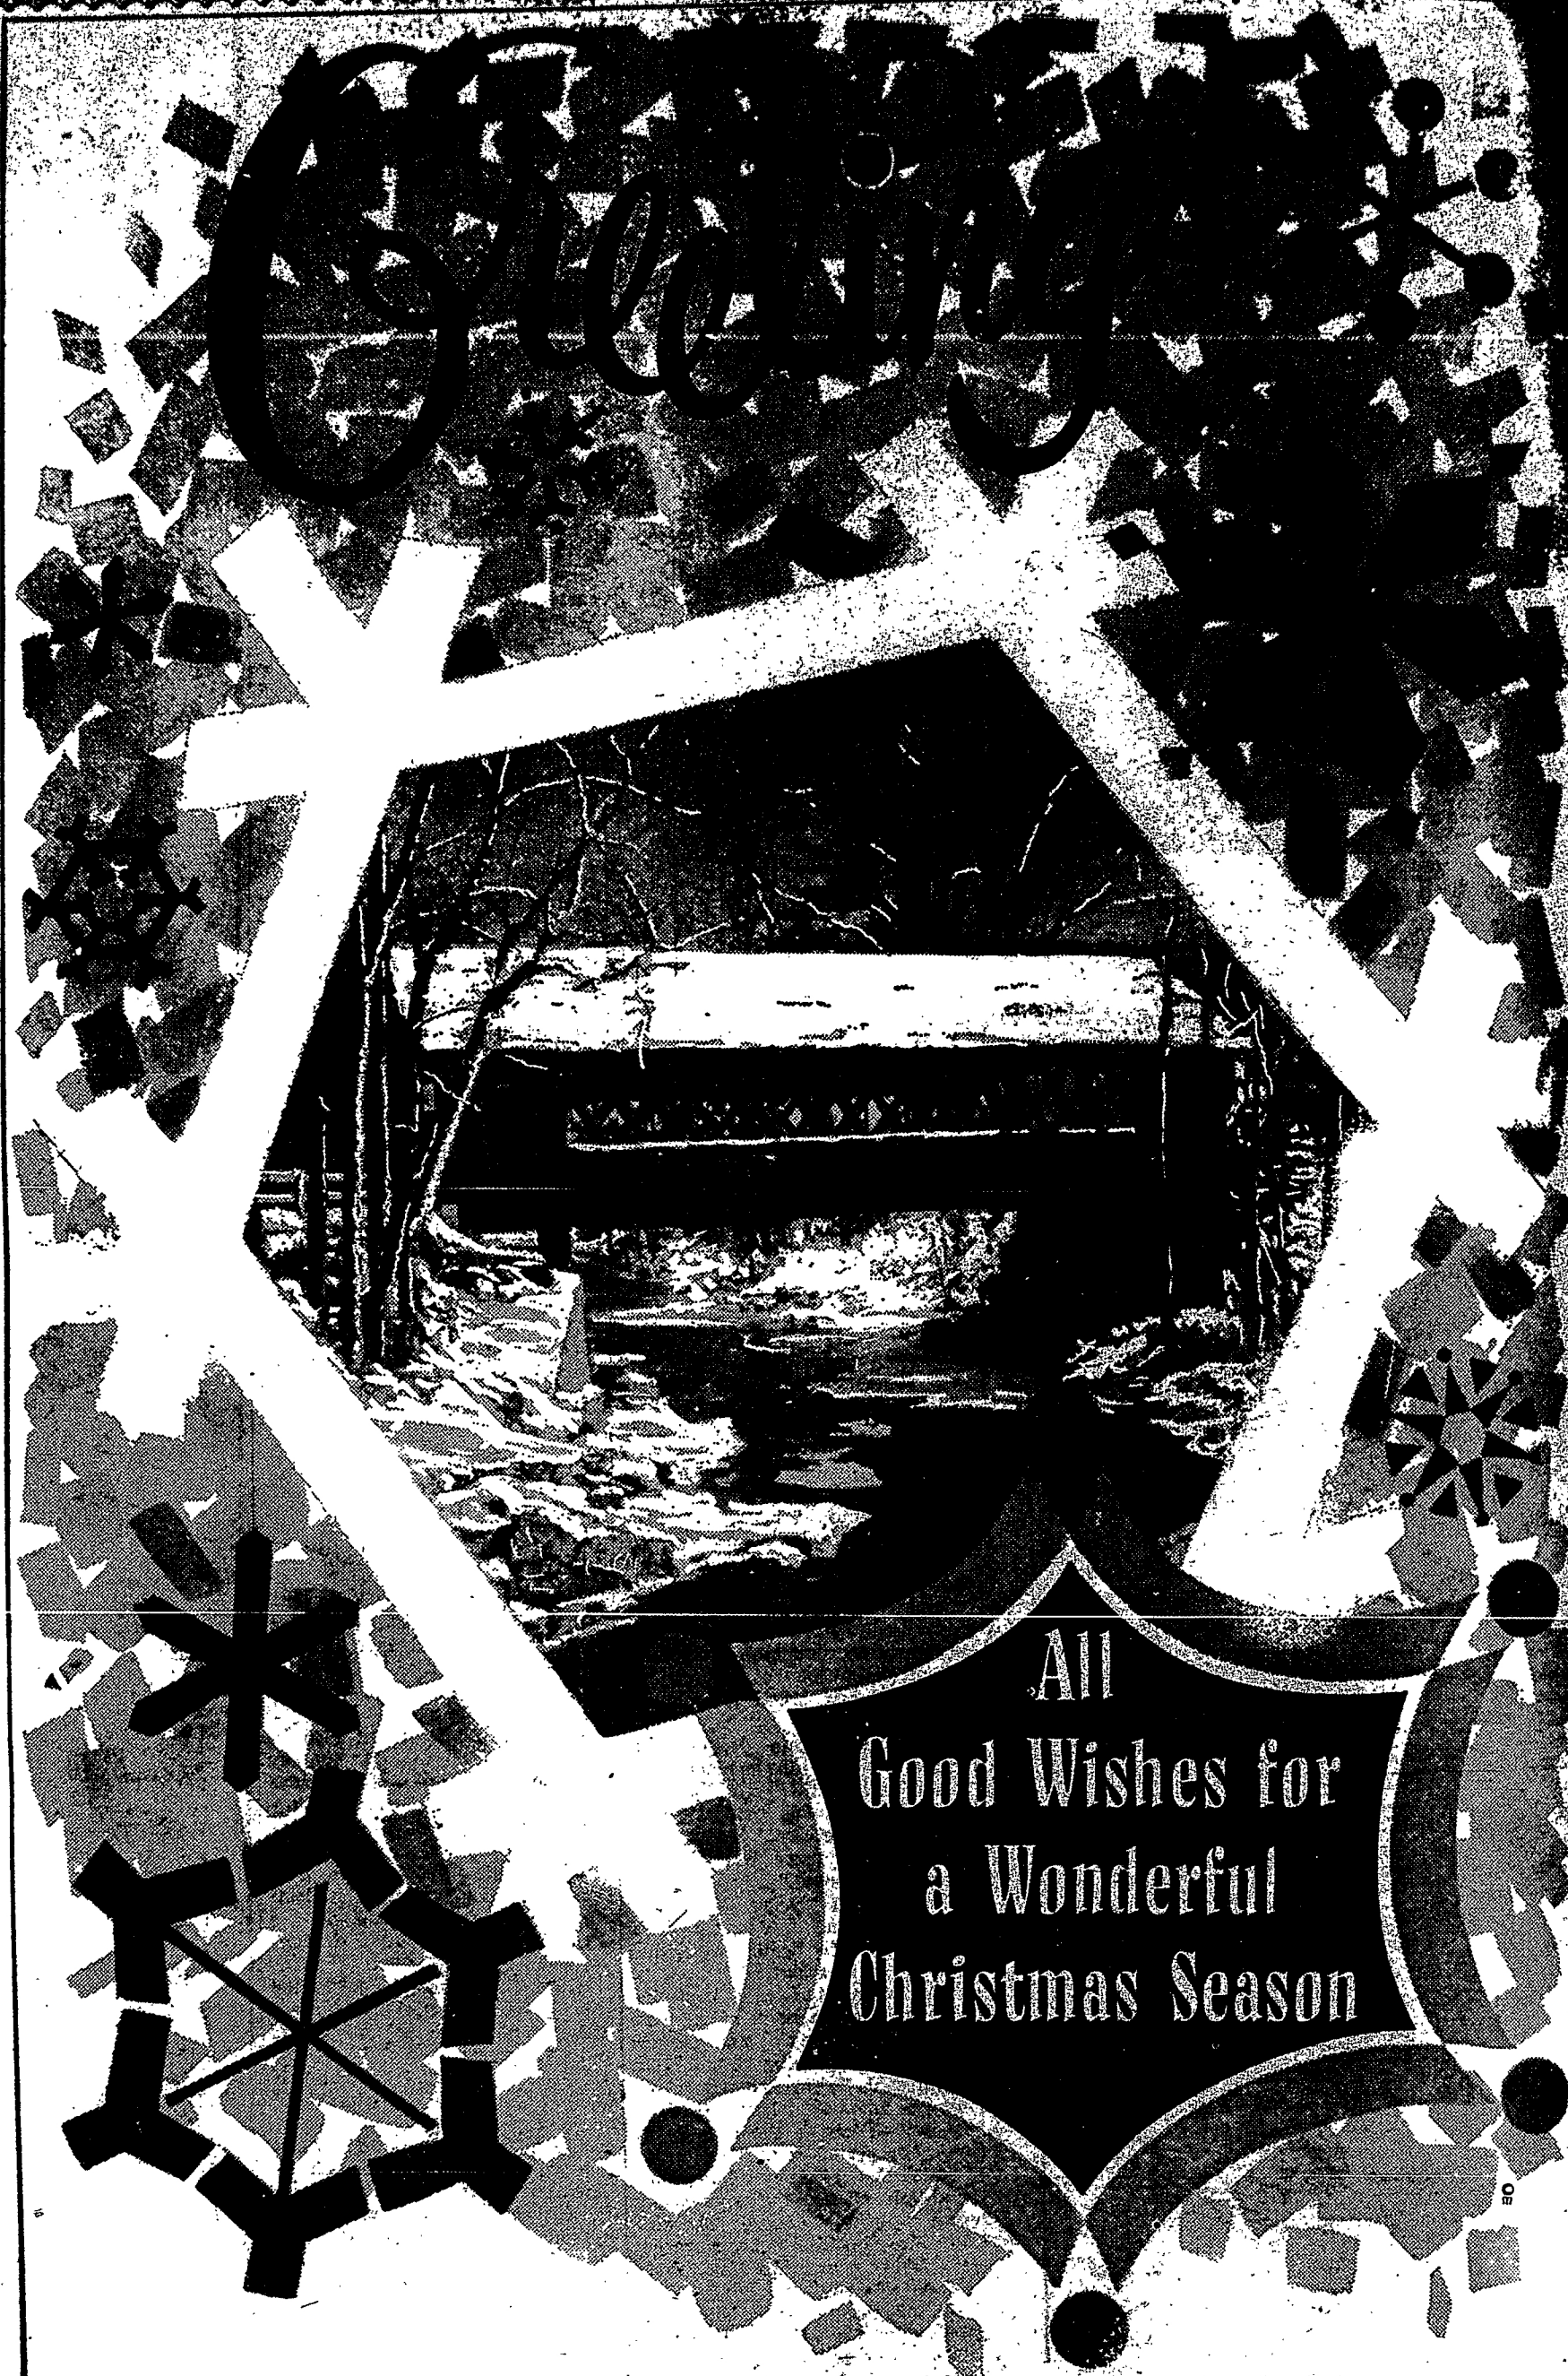

Call the fire department.

(Be sure everyone in your family knows how to call the fire department.)

At public gatherings

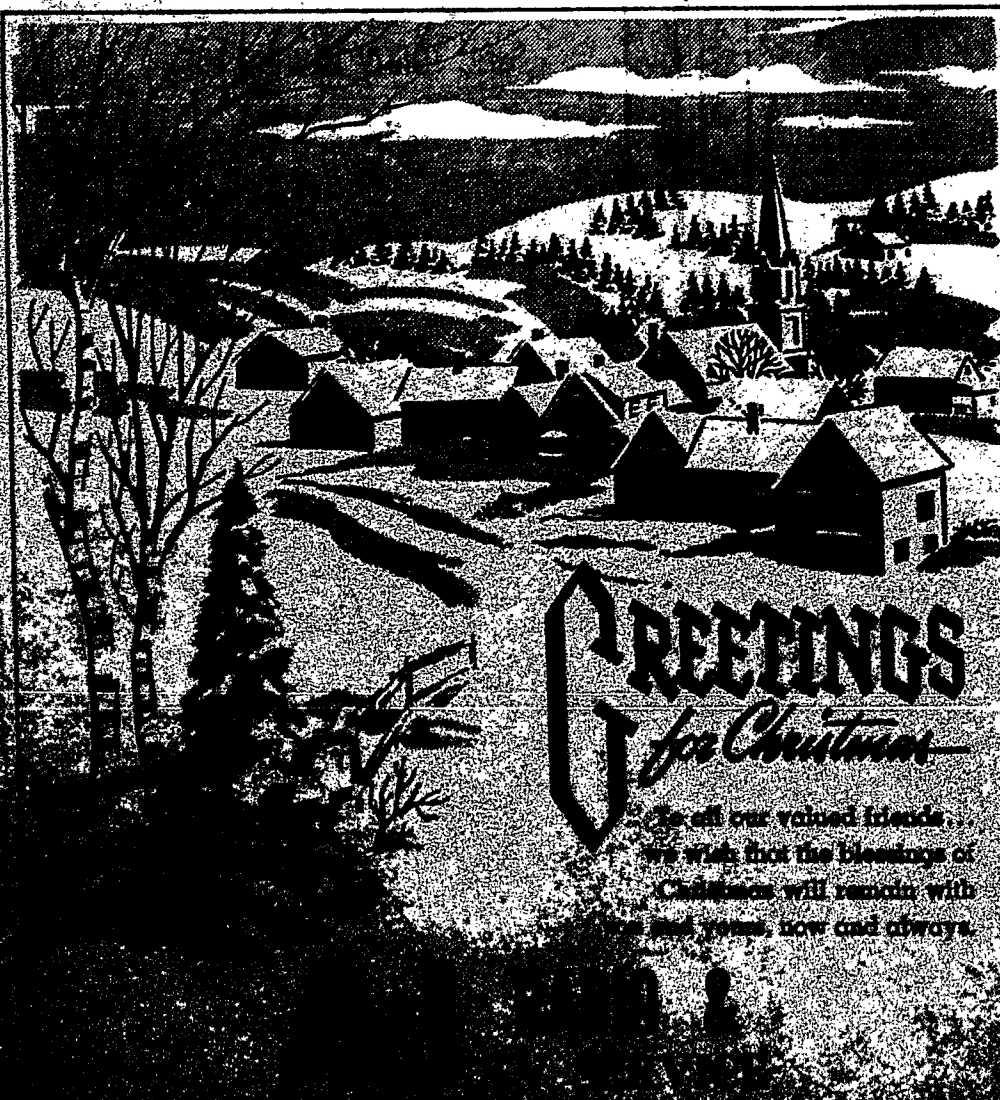

Walk, do not run, to the nearest exit. Call the fire department immediately. Keep Calm.

Over 300 Gardens Open To Visitors

The visiting of gardens affords much pleasure and lasting satisfaction. Open gardens and garden pilgrimages in the state have grown to be a major objective to many tourists. This year there are 338 gardens open to visitors at no charge. Some of these gardens are large with beautifully landscaped grounds; many others are small gardens, patios and terraces artistically designed for beauty and to fit the needs and interest of good living. The beauty and charm in the open gardens of Maryland is offered to visitors.

Crops And Livestock

With a fine balance between crops and livestock, the state has a fine record of production. The crops and livestock are of high quality and are well adapted to the needs of the state.

TWO WAVELAND RESIDENTS HURT IN TRAFFIC ACCIDENT

Two Waveland residents were injured last Thursday about 3 p.m. at Long Beach. The injured were identified by Long Beach Ptn. Claude Miller as Mrs. Nell Van Calsem, 318 Jefferson Davis Avenue, and Mrs. Lucille Fayard, 110 Fayard Street.

The injured were taken to Gulfport Memorial Hospital by Riemann ambulance and latest report is that they are both recovering satisfactorily.

Mrs. Van Calsem sustained chest injuries, fractured cheekbone, leg injuries and loss of teeth.

Mrs. Fayard, who was a passenger in the 1961 Ford Falcon driven by Mrs. Van Calsem, suffered a broken hip, broken leg, chest injuries and lacerations of the face.

The patrolman identified the driver of the other vehicle involved in the accident as T. D. Mayes, 44th Avenue, Gulfport.

According to the officer, Mrs. Van Calsem was traveling west on U. S. Highway 90 and the two vehicles collided as Mayes pulled into the highway from a private driveway near Gulf Park College.

Mrs. Van Calsem lost control of her car after the impact, according to officer Miller, and it crashed into a tree.

The investigating officer reported the Falcon as a total loss and minor damage to the Mayes' 1953 Buick.

ROCKCHAW'S POST 50-37 CAGE WIN

Three players hit in the double figures Tuesday night as the St. Stanislaus Rockchaws defeated the St. John Eagles of Gulfport 50-37 in a basketball tilt at the Rockchaw gymnasium.

In preliminary action, the St. Stanislaus junior varsity squad made it a clean sweep of the two-bill by downing St. John's B-team 41-39 in a close decision.

For the varsity, Tuesday's win came as a mark of revenge after the Rockchaws were defeated earlier in the season by St. John in tournament play at Gulfport.

The Eagles contributed generously to their own defeat by missing 18 out of 29 charity tosses.

Brother Ralph's Rockchaws moved out to a 10-3 first quarter lead and were never headed. St. John's best quarter was in the third when the Eagles outscored the victors 14-11, but it was too little and too late.

St. Stanislaus was paced by Oswald Caceres with 15 points, Mike Gore with 14 and Noddy Ladner with 10 points. Forward Garland Moran was high for the Eagles with 14 points. Genone led the Rockchaw junior varsity with 18 points.

NORMAL RAIL SERVICE RESTORED BY L. and N. R. R.

Normal rail service has been restored following damage to the Louisville and Nashville Railroad bridge at Pascagoula Monday. Service between Mobile and New Orleans was disrupted about 12:30 a.m. Monday when five runaway barges rammed into the Louisville and Nashville Railroad bridge at Pascagoula.

According to reports, the grain-loaded barges were part of eight barges that broke their moorings at Walker's Shipyard and floated down river.

Five of the barges went under U. S. Highway 90 toll bridge and rammed into the railroad bridge, while the other three hung up on the highway span.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo F. Wagner and son, Richard of New Orleans will be Christmas Day guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wagner and family.

Members of the Jayettes Wednesday night presented Mrs. Beatrice Nebel, Hancock County Welfare workers, gifts which they collected and repaired for distribution among needy children of the community.

Members URS Committee Meet For Planning Session This Week

Voicing optimism over the excellent response obtained from churches of the Harrison-Hancock county area, member of the United Religious Survey committee met for one of the final planning sessions Tuesday morning at the First Baptist Church in Long Beach.

The Rev. J. W. Brister, pastor of the church, reported in his capacity as enrollment committee chairman that slightly under 60 congregations from the two-county area have already indicated a desire to participate in the history-making religious survey.

A strong support from laymen was reported, and the committee noted that local chairman of areas to be surveyed are progressing in setting up their committees.

Each of the five areas into which the two counties have been divided for census purposes will have a central church designated as the nerve center of the recording and tabulating personnel.

These central churches will provide space for the typist to transcribe information on to permanent file cards, which can be used by the communities following the conclusion of the survey, which is slated for January 26-February 2.

Publicity chairman, the Rev. Richard Millerbrake of Beck Bay Mission (United Church of Christ) in Biloxi reported that survey organizations in New Orleans and Mobile have indicated a willingness to cooperate in the venture.

He So Loved

HE TAUGHT THE WORLD TO LOVE

For God so Loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son.

How meaningfully are these words today, nearly two thousand years after the humble beginning of that One Great Life in Bethlehem. How holy and purposeful was this life upon earth that it comes to us again and again in the spirit of Christmas to remind that the real joy and the real goodness of life lie not in riches and gold or self attainment, but in thoughtful and unselfish service and love.

For He so loved the world that He taught the world to love. Through one, great and wonderful life upon earth. He set down for all mankind and for all time the supreme example of the good life. In His every deed and action He portrayed the qualities of love and faith and kindness.

These qualities — and more — are all a part of Christmas. But, by His example, they are qualities that should abound in our lives throughout the years.

In thankfulness to God, for all His goodness and love, we should keep the Christmas in its true and joyful meaning, the spiritual occasion of the birth of Christ. And if we can, keep the spirit of Christ within our hearts throughout the year.

Letters To Santa

Elkridge, Md.

Dear Mr. Damborino,

As we are coming to Bay St. Louis for Christmas, will you please put our letter to Santa Claus in your paper. It's two years since we've been home and we are so happy to be able to come over.

Dear Santa Claus,

How are you at the North Pole?

Will you come to Mississippi for Christmas as that is where we will be.

My sister Marie Adele and I want almost the same things: a doll, sewing machine, dishes, telephone, baseball glove, play fur cape, robe and slippers, school bag, umbrella and a bag for my P. J's.

Your friends,

Laurin Anne and Marie Adele Favre.

St. Stanislaus of Bay St. Louis scored four points during an overtime period Sunday afternoon at the St. Stanislaus gymnasium to turn back St. Bernard of New Orleans 54-50 in a basketball tilt.

The Rockachaws made a clean sweep of the action when the St. Stanislaus B-team defeated the St. Bernard junior varsity 25-20 in a preliminary tilt.

Mike Gore bucketed 18 points and Oswaldo Caceres hit for 11 points to lead the winners. E. Hauck of St. Bernard connected for 22 points to take high scor-

The call of the Carols...

The spirit of Christmas is contagious. Carols bells and jolly music break through the hum of our busy world.

The spirit of Christmas calls you!

And it makes you want to call others!

Christmas has always affected men this way. First the herald angels bringing their good tidings to shepherds... the star beckoning three Wise Men to Bethlehem. Then Wise Men and shepherds returning from the Manger to thrill others with their strange story of the birth of the King.

Is it enough to answer the call of the carols?

Brighten someone's life by sharing the vision.

Bring someone with you to worship the Christ.

This someone will understand Christmas better when he sees what it means to you!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest force on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a source of spiritual power. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four good reasons why every person should belong to the Church. They are: (1) For his own betterment. (2) For the betterment of his community. (3) For the betterment of the Church itself. (4) For the betterment of the world. Plan to go to church regularly and send your little family.
